WHY WE DO, WHAT WE DO

Youth Homelessness Matters

Youth homelessness impacts over 26,000 young people, aged between 12 to 25 years, on any given night in Australia. The main causes of youth homelessness is domestic & family violence, family breakdown & child/young people abuse.

YPS works with around 300 young people per year- young people who are facing the challenge of surviving homelessness, dealing with their trauma & building their skills for the future. A significant barrier for young people experiencing homelessness is access to safe & affordable housing & the support to build independent living skills. YPS is there to help these young people face these challenges- through a range of support types & resources.

These young people are the future and EVERY young person matters!

What We Want to Achieve

YP SPACE MNC, with our Partners Port City Bowling Club and Huma Charity Challenges want to build the future of YPS's young people step by step.

The Everest Project is designed to raise funds for YPS to utilise in our fight against youth homelessness. Building our resources to better resource young people, through affordable housing access & essential support programs to develop young people's individual skills & capacity to be active community members. It takes more than just money to support a homeless young person- it takes a community. A community who care enough to make a difference.

We know that the type of community we live in & we want our young people to know that too.

Together we can make a difference.
